HR Policy Document

This document outlines the Human Resources policies and guidelines applicable to all employees within the organization. The purpose of this policy is to ensure transparency, fairness, and compliance with company standards and legal requirements.

- Code of Conduct – Employees must maintain professionalism, integrity, and respect in the workplace.
- Leave Policy – Defines annual leave, sick leave, and special leave procedures.
- Working Hours – Standard working hours and remote work guidelines.
- Performance Evaluation – Annual and periodic performance review procedures.
- Data Protection – Protection of employee and company confidential information.

Approved by: Human Resources Department Effective Date: January 2026